ROAR STREET JOURNAL

The Secret Cook

Bye Po.
Goodnight.
Goodnight Allie.

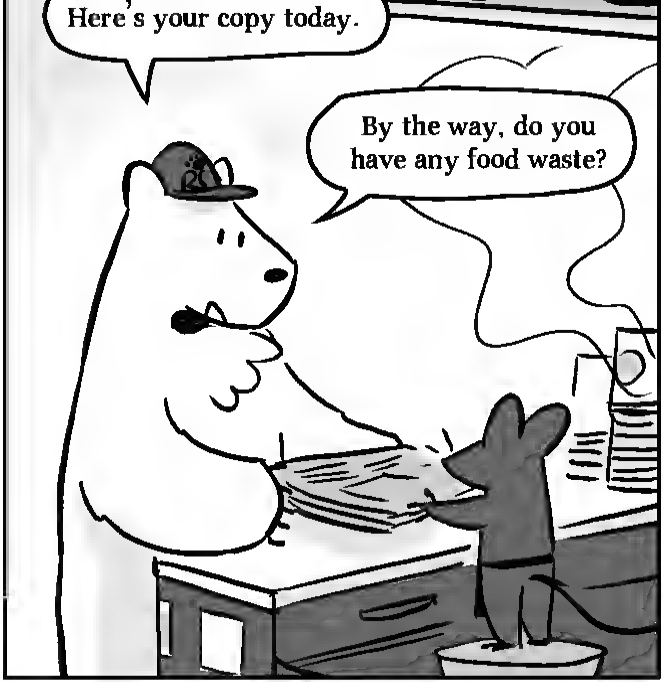
What other things I can cook from the food waste I collected?

Here's your free copy of Roar Street Journal.
Thanks.
By the way, do you have any food waste?

Um, let me see...
We have some leftover muffins and extra packs of ham.
They will expire soon.

Thank you.

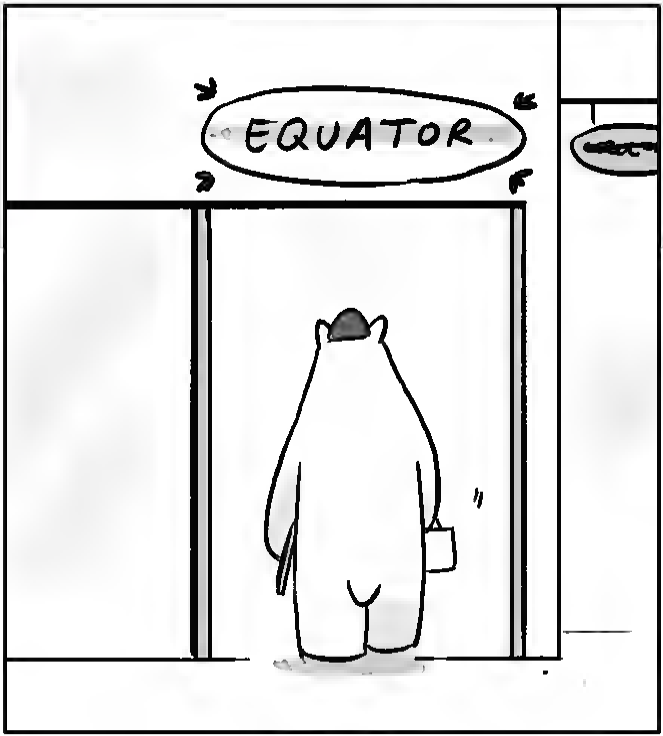
RATCAVE



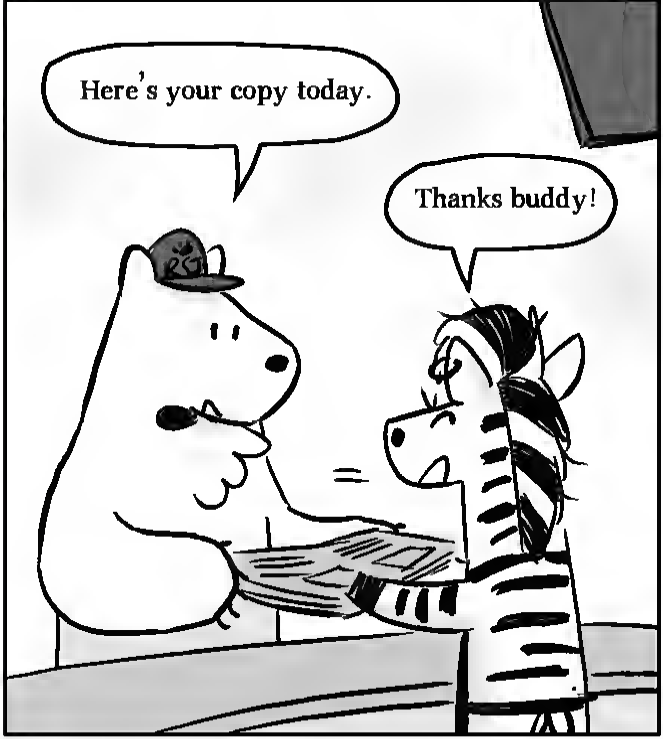
Here's your copy today.
By the way, do you have any food waste?

Cut-off cheese bits, not gonna use them in any way.
Take them.

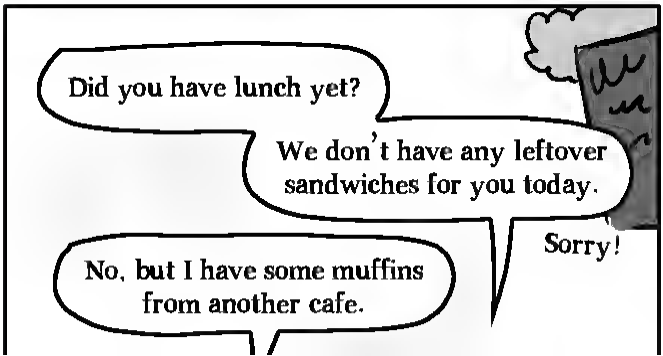
Thank you.



EQUATOR



Here's your copy today.
Thanks buddy!



Did you have lunch yet?
We don't have any leftover sandwiches for you today.
Sorry!
No, but I have some muffins from another cafe.

That's great!
How's your food collection thing going?

It's quite good.
I'm collecting from other cafes, and I can use them all.
Awesome!
You're doing something real good!

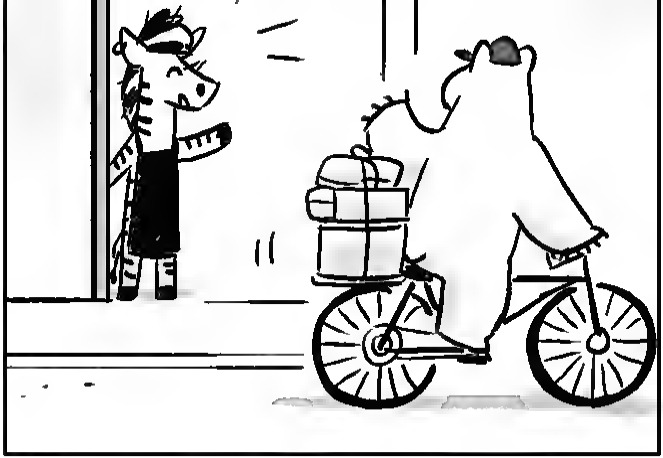
Enjoy the muffins!

Too much muffin for me...

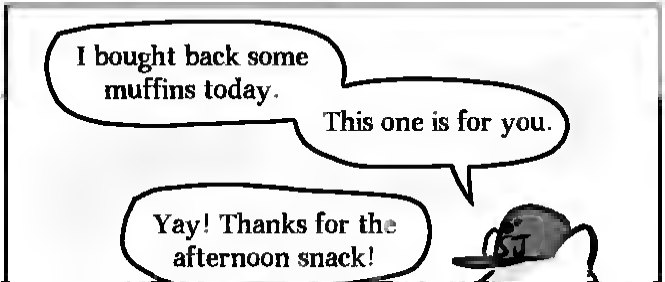
Oh, this one is whole wheat muffin. I'll save it for Horsie.
She won't mind it.
Hey buddy!
We have some flour hitting expiry date. Take these!

Actually it's "best before" rather than "expire".
You can still use them but not for this cafe.
Go make cookies or something
Thanks.

See ya tomorrow!



Hi Horsie.
Welcome back Po!



I bought back some muffins today.
This one is for you.
Yay! Thanks for the afternoon snack!

I can't believe you saved it just for me...
They are quite tasty.

Hmm, but it doesn't taste like the snacks you used to bring back.
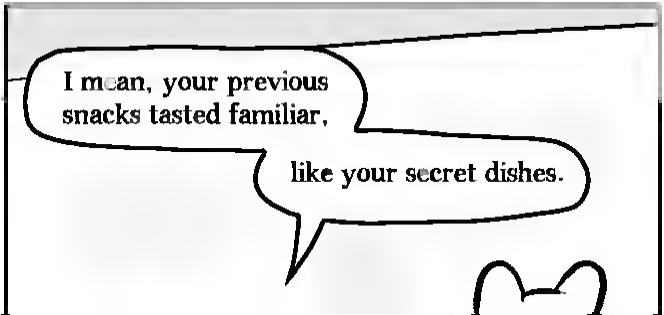
I feel like there's something missing...

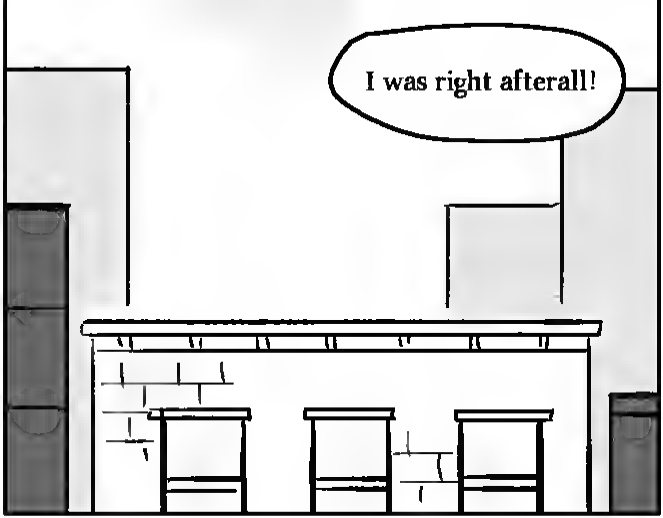


I mean, your previous snacks tasted familiar,
like your secret dishes.

Or maybe I'm over thinking -
No, you were right.

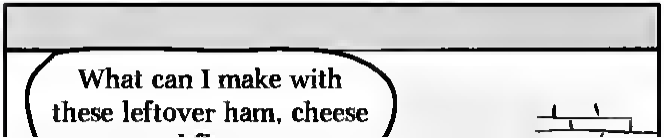
The afternoon tea that I brought back...
...I made them.
but not today

What?!



I was right afterall!

You're right that we mustn't let anyone know you cooked.
No one knows you're using the kitchen except Hippie and Buff.
And me
Chef Moussee will definintely kick you out if he found out you're cooking.



What can I make with these leftover ham, cheese and flour...

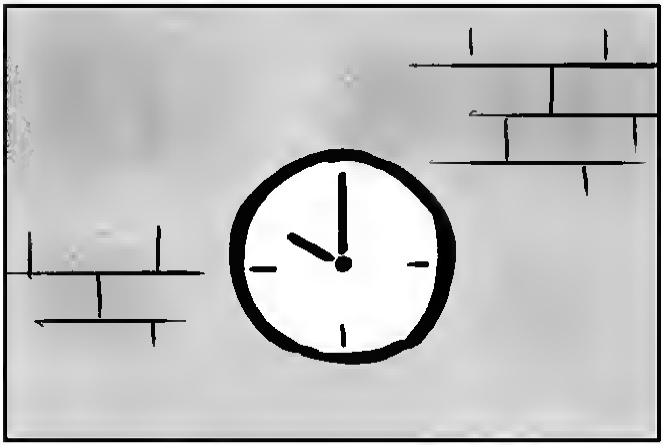
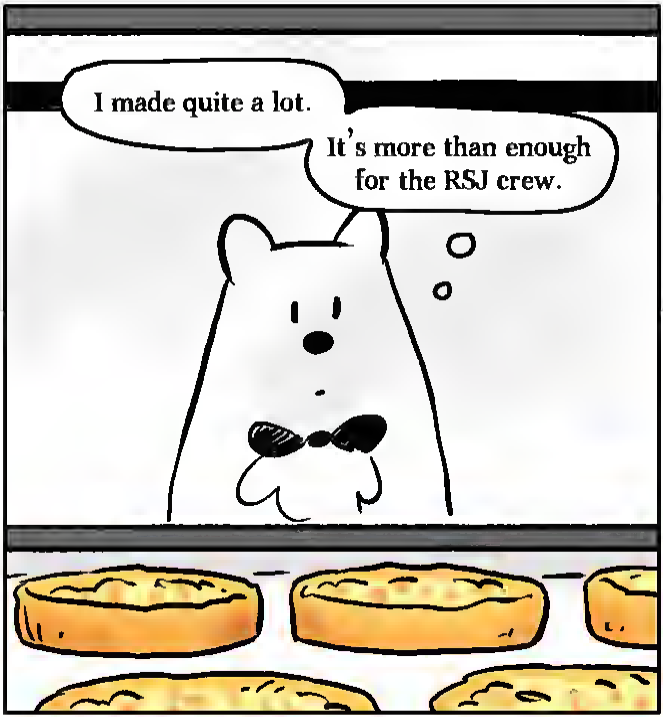
You're back. Good.
We have a dozen extra eggs, find some way to throw them into your recipe.

Thanks.

Ham, cheese, flour and eggs

Ham, cheese, flour and eggs...





I made quite a lot.
It's more than enough for the RSJ crew.

I'm likely to make more as I collect more food waste everytime...

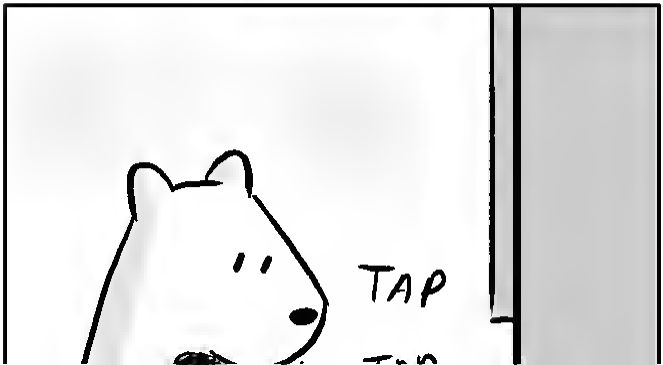
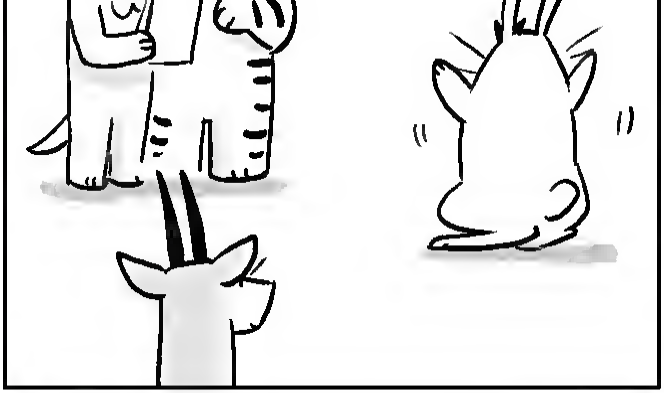
What can I do with the extras?



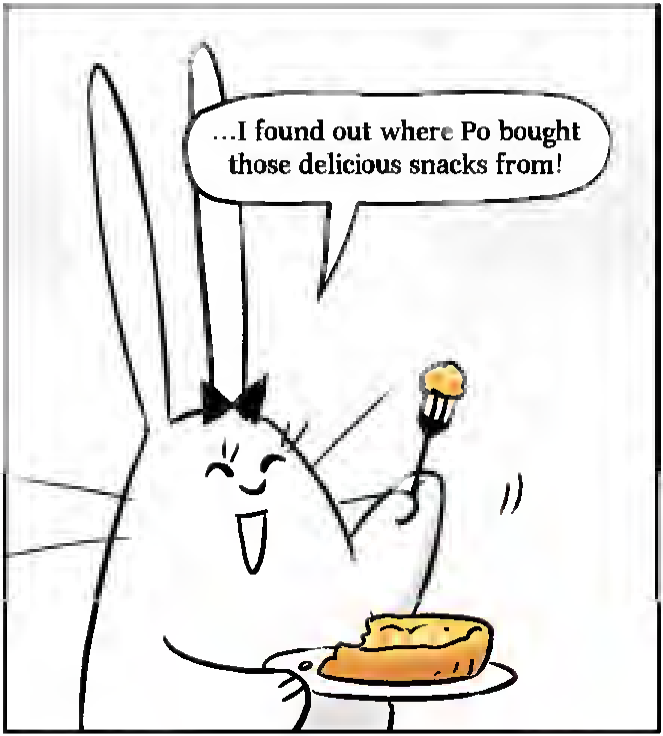
TAP
Hi Horsie,
can you help me?

Guys! Guys!
You mustn't miss Po's afternoon tea today!



It's the best ham and cheese quiche I've tasted!
Come get yours!
And most importantly,

I've solved the mystery...



ROAR STREET JOURNAL

How did you know I like plain whole wheat muffins?

I remember you don't like sweet things too much.

I ate the sweeter ones
